

A celebration of the life of

Sean Leslie Dowling

5th May 1967 - 15th February 2024

Andrew Smith Rest Rooms.
17 Tytler Street. Forres
Friday 8th March @ 12.30

Going Home - Runrig

These Are The Days Of Our Lives - Queen

Amazing Grace - The Royal Scots Dragoon Guards

*Through the mist on a heather clad hill top
Stands a forlorn, sad lonely figure,
Stumbling blindly,
Desperately searching to find his way
Jumbled thoughts and memories exploding in his head
Sadly things that now will never be said
He hears soft voices calling, and sees a luminous light
Anxiety swiftly melts away, a calm peace transcends
Now every things alright
Sean feels and sees clearly now.
His joy is clear to see*

*It's
Mum and dad come to guide him on his way into history
His story will live on for future generations
He's shining brightly in the Dowling family tree*

Words written by Dorothy

Appreciation

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time of sadness.

Refreshments will be served after the service at:

The Bonnie Beastie