"Under Byker Bridge" written by Norma Shepherd
Byker come alive again, surely your suffering was not in vain
Through like a snake of death the Berlin wall enfolds you,
Before you really die, the world I will let you know
This place called Byker which really exists down by the burn, gave birth to self-made millionaires and folk who'll never learn.

To whom it may concern,

I have had the pleasure of knowing Mr Arthur Milor for over thirty years, both as a friend and at times as a work colleague. I have always found him to be one of the most devious, theiving shortarses I've ever had the misfortune to encounter, if its not nailed down its away! and as for drinking he could put Oliver Reed to shame,,,,,,,,, still he's good to their lass... he never gans yem!!

I'm sure he'll be a better person when he's released back into the community.

Your sincerely

A Life Remembered

A life remembered,
Forever in our hearts.
Through memories treasured,
Our love never departs.

The laughter and joy,
The tears and the pain.
All part of a journey,
That has left its stain.

But as we move on,
And the days turn to years.
We know that our love,
Will conquer all fears.

For a life remembered,
Is a life well-lived.
And the love that we share,
Will never be outlived
