WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

OPENING MUSIC : These are the days of our lives - Queen

A message to you Dear Nan

I can't believe I am writing a goodbye letter to you as it doesn't seem real. There are no words to express the amount of pain and sorrow we truly feel.

You were the kindest, caring and loveliest Nan in the world. No-one can truly compare or come close to the love you upheld. You loved us all with every beat of your heart but that wasn't enough to keep you from Grandad. He was the love of your life, and you simply couldn't bear to be apart.

As we say our goodbye's and bid you farewell, please know you are loved and will be incredibly missed, please feel proud, you served your family well. We will try to keep strong, but I don't know how, all I can say is 'bye for now'.

REFLECTION MUSIC : Fields of Gold - Sting

A message to you Dear Grandad

As we gather in memory of you what a marvellous man you truly were, full of laughter, sarcasm and love all the way through. Remembering the good times and many gatherings and BBQ's too. It seems like only yesterday I was fetching you a brew.

A letter to you Dear Gramps

To thank you for everything that you did, from all of us, including a lot of Grandkids!!

As sad as it is to see you go and say our last goodbyes, we want you to know it's been an absolute honour and privilege to of had you in our lives.

A message to you Dear Grandad

I want to put your mind at ease and to reassure that we will continue to 'keep the poxy door closed, turn the lights out, flush the toilet and all your other pleas'. As funny as you were, you liked to wind Nan up, make no mistake. Like the time you rang a bell at her and asked Alexa "Where's my F***ing steak".
