POEM

Feel no guilt in laughter - read by Gemma

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to. He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever, locked safely within your heart.

APPRECIATION

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.

The family would like to thank you for your attendance today and for all the kind tributes and messages they have received following Allan's passing.

You are warmly invited back to The Surrey Pub,
Hermitage Road, St Johns, Woking GU21 8TX
To raise a glass and share your happiest memories of Allan

Any donations in memory of Allan would be gratefully received on the following Go Fund Me page.
