Abide With Me

Henry Francis Lyte

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
the darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
when other helpers fail, and comforts flee, help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
in life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Commendation & farewell. Blessing

Loyalty

Never believe the worst of a man,
When once you have seen his best,
Of any Loyalty worth the name,
This is the surest test.
Gossip is ready at every turn,
Your Faith and Trust to slay,
But the Loyal Soul is deaf to doubt,
Whatever the world may say.
Whatever you hear on other lips,
Don't let it spoil your own,
Let your faith still stronger be,
While the seed of slanders sown.
Keep the image before your eyes,
Of the friend who's a friend to you
And stand by that friend through thick and thin,
Whatever the world may do.
Never believe the worst of a man,
When your own soul sees the best,
All that matters is what you know,
Not what the others have guessed.
And if all you know is straight and fine,
And has brought you friendship's joys
Be proud to treasure the truth that's yours
Whatever the world destroys.
