Welcome and Introduction

Poem

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

The Eulogy, By Ben Oliver.

Music For Reflection, For the good times, Perry Como.

Poem Yorkshire Man
You're my favourite Yorkshireman And by now I've met a few! Aye
I've met some champion chaps, But none are quite like you.
You've got that Yorkshire way wi' words, That Yorkshire wit and charm. Yorkshire born and Yorkshire bred, You've Yorkshire strength int arm.

You're my favourite Yorkshireman And aye you might be tight, You might say "It's like illuminations 'ere! Come turn off this big light!"
Your heart is like a Yorkshire pud, From me, the truth dunt 'ide.
Although you're crisp and 'ard round t' edge I know you're soft inside.

You might be grumpy now and then, Or play your cards close to your chest, But you're my favourite Yorkshireman, Aye, I think you're one o' t' best

The Lords Prayer

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation

but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours

now and for ever.

Amen.
