Requiem Mass for Catherine Henry

Opening Hymn - I Watched The Sunrise

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky,
Casting its shadows near.
And on this morning bright though it be,
I feel those shadows near me.

But you are always close to me
Following all my ways.
May I be always close to you
Following all your ways, Lord. (Chorus)

I watch the sunlight shine through the clouds,
Warming the earth below.
And at the mid-day, life seems to say:
I feel your brightness near me.

For you are always close to me . . . (Chorus)

I watch the sunset fading away,
Lighting the clouds with sleep.
And as the evening closes its eyes,
I feel your presence near me.

For you are always close to me . . . (Chorus)

I watch the moonlight guarding the night,
Waiting till morning comes.
The air is silent, earth is at rest
Only your peace is near me.

Yes, you are always close to me . . . (Chorus)

To be read at the crematorium

Poem - Read by Zara Henry

Loving Memory Of My Beautiful Mother

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and He whispered "Come to Me" With tearful eyes we watched you.

We watched you fade away.

Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, Hard-working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us, He chose to take the best.

It's lonesome here without you we miss you more each day.

Life doesn't seem the same since you have gone away.

When days are sad and lonely and everything goes wrong, we seem to hear you whisper

"Cheer Up and Carry On"

Each time we see your picture you seem to smile and say,

"Don't cry, I'm in God's hands, we'll meet again someday!"
