

We gather here to shed our heartfelt tear, a life well lived a heart so kind, in our hearts and memories forever you'll find

With wisdom in your eye's and stories to tell, you guided me through life so well

A source of strength and boundless love, you're now with the angels watching me from above

Your laughter and your comforting embrace, time can't erase the love you gave the grace

The lesson's learned, the values passed down, in your absence i will carry your legacy's crown

Through every season you stood by my side, in joy and sorrow you were always my guide

With every smile and every word you'd say, you made my world a brighter much warmer place each day

Though you've embarked on your eternal flight, in my heart you'll forever shine so bright

As we all bid farewell with heavy hearts we know, your love and presence in all our lives will always glow

In the starry sky and the gentle breeze's breath, in the song's of birds and the sunstes depth

We'll find your spirit forever at our side, my beloved Grandad my eternal pride

As i say my goodbye's i promise to cherish, the memories of your love never to perish

You were really one in a millon, a cut above the rest, all who knew you would agree, you simply were the best

Rest in peace Grandad in heaven's embrace, until we meet again in a much better place

Love always, Your Babygirl
