WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Roger Lloyd

READING - "Dads"

A father is an ordinary man doing his best to stand in for Superman. A source of good but usually expendable advice. A very nearly expert... a man who knows but should like to look it up, just to be on the safe side. A man who goes down fighting.

Dads are most ordinary men turned by love into adventurers, storytellers, singers of songs. Dads can do anything. The youths of dads were packed with excitement and their minds are packed with anecdotes. They have sound views on politics, dogs, sport, and saving the environment.

They have drawers and boxes and sheds full of valuable junk. And string. And stuff. They can tell unforgettable stories. There really is a touch of magic in a dad. They are no longer ordinary men.
They are special.

We love them for all the things they are and the love they give unconditionally. Dads know more about things than you'd credit. Only it's best to check before you hand it in as homework!

TIME OF REFLECTION

"Forever Autumn" - Justin Hayward
(Performed by Joshua Woo)

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT - "Farewell Family & Friends"

It was beautiful,
As long as it lasted,
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever,
Save the pain I'll leave behind.

The strong arms that held me up,
When my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life,
I came across good friends,
Friends who stood by me,
Even when the time raced me by.

Farewell, farewell, my friends,
I smile and bid you goodbye.
Shed no tears,
For I need them not,
All I need is your smile.

If you feel sad,
Do think of me,
For that is what I'll like.
When you live in the hearts of those you love,
Remember then,
You never die.
