Rob's Words

By Karen & Read by Jay

Rob was a man of few words ,but when he spoke it was plain,
simple, honest and to the point!

His favourite word was Kal

Followed by where are ya?

Or have you got a minute?

Which sometimes drove me mad but now as I sit at home and the phone will ring, a knock at the door with kind words to see how I've been, The only words I wanna hear are

Kal

Where are ya?

Have you got a min?

I'm sure you all have your own words that Rob spoke to you too and you long to hear them again as I do

So when my time does come,
And Rob is near I will wait to hear his words loud and clear

Kal

Where are ya?

Have you got a min?

My heart will call back

Yes, I'm here...

Come get me!

I've got more than a min, I have forever with you X

Poem - Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Read By Jay

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.

He'd hope that you could live your life the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour or a day,
that brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
and fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
and he will live forever locked safely within your heart.
