She is Gone

A poem by David Harkins

Read by Dominique James (née Williams)

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that was shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live for yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Our family would like to thank you all for your kind support and for joining us in celebrating Delphine's life.
Nous vous remercions d'etre parmi nous pour célébrer la vie de Delphine.

Food and refreshments will be served after the service:
