REFLECTION & MUSIC FROM ANDRE RIEU

Wonderphyll Ode

You gave so much love
More than could be measured out
Every memory of us
Plays out in full colour and sound

You gave so much love
There's only one thing to do with it now
I don't believe in much
But I like to think you're still around

I'll find you
In the best parts of me
Every flower and tree
From the warm summer breeze
To the gold autumn leaves

I'll find you
Here in the heart of me
Every wave of the sea
From the clouds to the deep
You're in everything

Sleep
I'll still see you in my dreams
Laughing like we'd always be
That's what I'll carry with me

So Sleep
I'll speak to you in my dreams
I'll be alright once you speak back to me
That's what I'll carry with me
