WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Poem chosen by Tony Payne

*A Limb Has Fallen from our Family Tree
I keep hearing a voice that says grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song
The good life I lived whilst I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your life, dont worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

Reading
An extract from No Matter What

'Does love wear out' said Small, does it break or bend? Can you fix it, stick it, does it mend?

'Oh help' said Large 'I'm not that clever. I just know I'll love you forever.

Small said 'but what about when you're dead and gone. Would you love me then, does love go on?'

Large held small snug as they looked out at the night, at the moon in the dark and the stars shining bright.

'Small, look at the stars, how they shine and glow, yet some of those stars died a long time ago. Still they shine in the evening skies, like starlight never dies'
