Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Genesis 1:26-28, 31

Read by Hiral Patel

God said, “Let us make man in our own image, in the likeness of ourselves and let them be masters of the fish of the sea, the birds of heaven, the cattle, all the wild beasts and all the reptiles that crawl upon earth.” God created man in the image of himself, in the image of God he created him, male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth and conquer it. Be masters of the fish of the sea, the birds of heaven and all living animals on the earth.” God saw all he had made, and indeed it was very good.

The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: 102:1-2,8,13,17-18

Read by Eddy Gliniecki

The response to the psalm is: The Lord is compassion and love.

All: The Lord is compassion and love.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings.

All: The Lord is compassion and love.

The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

As a father has compassion on his sons, the Lord has pity on those who fear him.

All: The Lord is compassion and love.

The love of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold him in fear;

his justice reaches out to children's children when they keep his covenant in truth.

All: The Lord is compassion and love

Gospel: John 2:1-11 (Please stand)

Fr. Denis: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Fr. Denis: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

All: Glory to you O Lord.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." Jesus said, "Woman why turn to me? My hour has not come yet." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water," and they filled them to the brim. "Draw some out now," he told them, "and take it to the steward." They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from—only the servants who had drawn the water knew—the steward called the bridegroom and said, "People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have plenty to drink, but you have kept the best wine till now."

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

We pray for all married couples here today. May they be reminded of the joy of their own day. May they give thanks for the happiness they have known and may each day find them more devoted to each other than the last.

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our prayer

We remember the smiles and laughter of those who have gone before us, who would have loved to share in the joy and happiness of this day. We thank God for the happy memories they have left with us.

May God one day unite us again.

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our prayer

We pray for the private intentions of all here present, that God may grant you and your loved ones your requests, and guide you happily through life.

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our prayer

We offer these prayers to Mary, the mother of Jesus, as we say

All: Hail Mary full of Grace

The Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou amongst women

And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,

Pray for us sinners,

Now and at the hour of our death.

Hallowed be thy name;

Thy kingdom come

As we forgive those who trespass against us;

And deliver us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil
