

And my heart breaks
When you cry in your sleep
So i cant stay here Hoping I'm something you'll keep

I will love you Miss you
All of my life

I will wonder
About you
All of my life

I will need you Want you
All of my life

But I've lost you Lost you
For the rest of my life.

Reading from Andrew

Welcome everyone

Thank you for coming down today

I know it means a lot to Gary & Rachel and especially to Linda.

I don't know where to begin, you all knew Linda a lot longer and more intimately than myself.

However, what I do know is that Linda was a force of nature, there wasn't a room she couldn't brighten with her smile and that infectious laugh.

From the stories Gary & Rachel have told me she was the type of person that could turn a Monday into a celebration.

Don't be fooled by that easy smile tho...

Although Linda was as laid back as they come, when she did get fired up, well lets just say, things had a tendency to be clattered.

But that was just Linda, passionate about everything...

Especially with the latest going-ons with Coronation Street,

and voicing her opinions on Instagram.

Linda was strong Faced with multiple health challenges which would have knocked down lesser folk, Linda just kept on going.

She was a fighter, a true survivor all the while keeping that smile on her face.
It's a testament to the amazing woman she was.
Linda wasn't just strong,
I could see she was fiercely devoted to you all; her family.

A loving Wife to Gary A supportive Sister to Janet and a mother who absolutely adored her daughter, her little munch, Rachel.

Seeing Rachel settled down and married was a dream Linda held close.

While we were unable to fulfill that wish in the final days she knew and understood it will happen one day and will be by Rachel's side when it does.

We can all agree that the love she poured into Rachel will continue to guide and support her.

Linda's absence will indefinitely leave a huge hole in our hearts.

We will all miss her smile, her laugh, the occasional frustrations with house hold objects and her thoughts on her most recent Instagram ban.

Most of all we'll miss the incredible woman she was

As she would have wanted, let us remember Linda not for her passing, but for the joy she brought into all of our lives.

Her unwavering love for her family and her catchphrase "eee hell".

Linda,
you may be gone, but you'll never be forgotten.

Now, Gary tells me that whilst in Cyprus on their honeymoon, Linda developed a taste for Anglias brandy.

So if you would all join me in honouring Linda by raising a glass in her name...

To Linda
