THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

A reading from the Song of Songs (2: 8-10-14. 15)

read by Mrs Andrea Mederos

I hear my Beloved. See how he comes leaping on the mountains, bounding over the hills. My Beloved is like a gazelle, like a young stag. See where he stands behind our wall. He looks in at the window, he peers through the lattice.

My Beloved lifts up his voice, he says to me, 'Come then, my love, my lovely one, come. My dove, hiding in the clefts of the rock. In the coverts of the cliff, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet and your face is beautiful.'

My beloved is mine and I am his. Set me like a seal on your heart, like a seal on your arm. For love is strong as Death, jealousy relentless as Sheol. The flash of it is a flash of fire, a flame of the Lord himself. Love no flood can quench, no torrents drown.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The cantor first sings the response which is then repeated by all, and again by all after each of the psalm verses:

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise Him with the sound of trumpets.

Words: Psalm 150

Music: Colin Mawby (1936 - 2019)

SECOND READING

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (12: 31- 13:8)
read by Miss Reece Johnson

Be ambitious for the higher gifts.

*And I am going to show you a way that is better than any of them.
If I have all the eloquence of men or of angels, but speak without love,
I am simply a gong booming or a cymbal clashing. If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are, and knowing everything, and if I have faith in all its fullness, to move mountains, but without love, then I am nothing at all. If I give away all that I possess, piece by piece, and if I even let them take my body to burn it, but am without love, it will do me no good whatever.*

Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous;

love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish;

it does not take offence, and is not resentful.

Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth;

it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope,

and to endure whatever comes.

Love does not come to an end.

The Lord be with you
AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT

A reading from the + Holy Gospel + according to + John
GLORY TO YOU, O LORD

Jn. 15: 9-12

Jesus said to his disciples:

“As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you.

Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete.

This is my commandment:
Love one another, as I have loved you.”

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Deacon invites all present to pray the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen
