Poem - Take My Hand

(Written by Dick Johnson) - Read by Jonathan Owusu-Yianomah

Take my hand, come walk with me along life's winding way. Take my hand, come stand with me, together we will say:

It's you that I have chosen, It's you with whom I'll stay, It's you with whom I'll share my life I want no other way.

I want you always by my side through laughter and through tears. The good, the bad, we'll share it all, through all the coming years.

Because I want this union to continue to be blessed, I pray we both will care enough to always give our best.

I know that if we do our best, then when our journey ends, we'll find that we've come through it all still lovers, ever friends
