Life Is A Gamble

*I have just about had enough,
Now I'm ready to call your bluff.
I don't care what cards you're holding,
I have no intention of folding.*

*If it's a pair of Kings or Aces high,
I'm still waiting to give it a try .
From the lowest card to a royal flush,
The anticipation is such a rush.*

*Life has dealt me a dangerous hand,
Yet I'm still waiting to take a stand .
It's hard to read or find your tell,
So now I'm under the hypnotic spell.*

*It's all about the cards you choose,
That'll determine if you win or lose.
No matter what you have under your belt,
Make the best of the hand you're dealt.*
