Remembering Patsy

"She Is Gone" David Harkins (Poem)

You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her only that she is gone,
or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

"My Beautiful Mum" Memories by Suzi

"Morningside" Neil Diamond

"Let Me Go" Christina Rossetti (Poem)

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me - but let me go.

Reflection Music "Nimrod from Enigma Variations" Edward Elgar

Giving Thanks for Patsy's Life

Closing Words

"Afterglow" (Poem)

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when my life is done

Closing Song - "Dancing On The Ceiling" Lionel Richie
