

Entrance of the Bride

Here comes the Bride (Richard Wagner)

Opening Hymn:

All Things Bright and Beautiful (Cecil Frances Alexander)

All things bright and beautiful
All creatures great and small
All things wise and wonderful
'Twas God that made them all

Each little flower that opens
Each little bird that sings
He made their glowing colors
And made their tiny wings

The purple headed mountains
The rivers running by
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky

The cold wind in the winter
The pleasant summer sun
The ripe fruits in the garden
He made them every one

He gave us eyes to see them
And lips that we might tell
How great is the Almighty
Who has made all things well

Glory to God in the highest...

Opening Prayer:

Fr Brian: O God, who in creating the human race willed that man and wife should be one, join we pray, in a bond of inseparable love these your servants who are to be united in the covenant of Marriage, so that, as you make their love fruitful, they may become, by your grace, witnesses to charity itself. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus

A loving partner is a safe shelter, whoever finds one has found a rare treasure. A loving partner is something beyond price, there is no measuring their worth. A loving partner is a life saving remedy and those who respect the Lord will find true life and, as a person is, so is their loved one.

This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm
On Eagles Wings (Michael Joncas)

Soloist Paul Lillie

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord
Who abide in His shadow for life
Say to the Lord, "My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!"

*And He will raise you up on eagles' wings
Bear you on the breath of dawn
Make you to shine like the sun
And hold you in the palm of His hand*

The snare of the fowler will never capture you
And famine will bring you no fear
Under His wings your refuge, His faithfulness your shield

You need not fear the terror of the night
Nor the arrow that flies by day
Though thousands fall about you, near you it shall not come

For to His angels He's given a command
To guard you in all of your ways
Upon their hands they will bear you up
Lest you dash your foot against a stone

And hold you, hold you in the palm of his hand

Second Reading: A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans (12:9-18)

Let your love be genuine, and sincerely prefer good to evil. Love one another with great affection, and have a profound respect for each other. If you have hope, this will make you cheerful. Do not give up if difficulties come, and keep on praying. Think of the needs of others. Seek to be compassionate and kind, humble and patient. Be tolerant with one another and be ready to forgive when one of you has a complaint about the other. The Lord forgives you, so you must do the same, and on top of all these, be loving, because love binds everything in your hearts. And be thankful, whatever we do or say, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

This is the Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (John 2:1-11)

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come? His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from (although the servants who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Rite of Marriage

Fr Brian: Joanne and Mark, you have come to this church so that Lord may seal your love in the presence of the priest and this community. Christ blesses this love. He has already consecrated you in baptism, now, by a special sacrament, he strengthens you to fulfil the duties of your married life.

Fr Brian: Joanne and Mark, you are about to celebrate this sacrament. Have you come here of your own free will and choice and without compulsion to marry each other?

Both: We have

Fr Brian: Will you love and honour each other in marriage all the days of your life?

Both: We will

Fr Brian: Are you willing to accept with love the children God may send you and bring them up in accordance with the law of Christ and his Church?

Both: We are

Declaration of Consent

Fr Brian: I invite you then to declare before God and his Church your consent to become husband and wife.

Mark: I take you Joanne as my wife, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, all the days of our lives

Joanne: I take you Mark as my husband, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, all the days of our lives

Fr Brian: What God joins together man must not separate. May the Lord confirm the consent that you have given, and enrich you with his blessings.

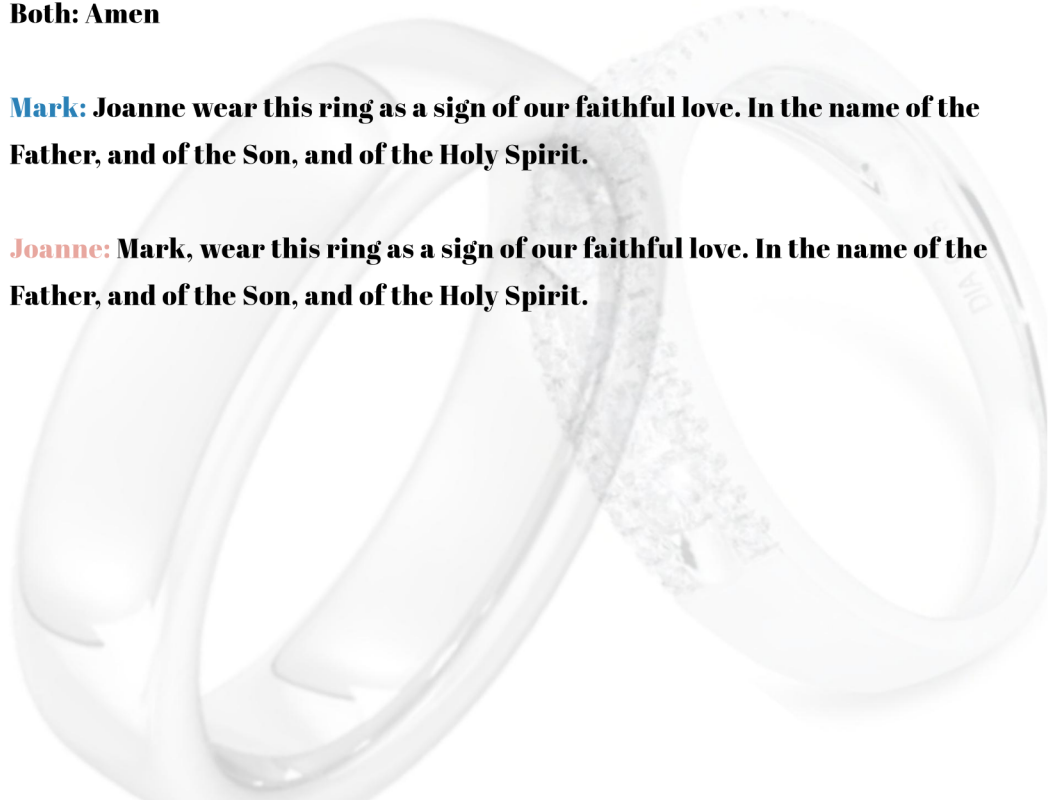

Blessing of the Rings

Fr Brian: Almighty God, bless these rings, symbols of faithfulness and unbroken love. May Joanne and Mark always be true to each other. May they be in one heart and mind. May they be united in love forever, through Christ our Lord.

Both: Amen

Communion Hymn

Make me a channel of your peace (Jon Cohen)

Soloist Paul Lillie

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is hatred let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there is doubt true faith in You

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is despair in life let me bring hope
Where there is darkness only light
And where there's sadness ever joy

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
It is in giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we are born to eternal life

Amazing Grace: (John Newton)

Soloist Paul Lillie

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!

I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;

'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His Word my hope secures;
He will my Shield and Portion be,
As long as life endures
