Welcoming introduction

Opening Prayer

Closing Prayer and Blessing

Don't lay wreaths at my graveside, or mark the earth with a named cross, It's not what I want, it only helps you ease your loss,

What I want is for laughter, cheer and song,
To toast my memory with music, when I am gone.
So top up your glass, and say out loud my name, And remember my laughter, don't remember my pain,

Think of me fondly, with a smile on your face, Let my memory live on, when I'm gone from this place
