God Saw You Getting Tired
By Frances & Kathleen Ceolho

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered "come to me"

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away and although we love you dearly, we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best.

Poem of Mechanics
By Maya Anthony

*In the shop, a rhythm beats, changing tools, hearts retreats,
Under cars, in greasy seats,
Mechanics dance, never depletes*

With every twist, a satisfied sigh, Craftsmen's song, never shy

*Engines hum, a completed task
In their hands, triumph unmask,
Every repair, a success to bask,
In the symphony of their craft, we bask*

APPRECIATION

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time of sadness.
