*My Mum will always be with me
I can cry because she has gone
Or I can smile because I was blessed to have her as my Mum
My heart is broken because I cannot chat or have a hug with her
But it is full of the love we shared
I look around and see all she has left
My Mum lives on inside me
She is the place I came from
She is the map I follow
She is my first love and nothing can break our bond
I will cherish her memory and do what she would want, smile, laugh, love and go on.*
