Poem

When I am gone - Mrs Lyman Hancock

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile.
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember that I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of day.
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day.
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

Chances are - Jonny Mathis

Lords Prayer

*Our father who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory
Forever and ever
Amen*

Farewell

*Accompanied by Ennio Morricone's
La Califfa*

Jack to a King - Ned Miller

God bless Dad, sleep tight, all our love, forever x

As a family we would like to thank you all for your love and support at this sad time.

As Pete would say... "What comes after S?"

You'd say "T?"

Pete would say... "Yes please, with 3 sugars"
