Reading

Romans 8: 31- 39

'What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

As it is written:

“For Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.”

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

APPRECIATION

We would like to thank you all for your kind love and support during this time. A special thank you to St Aldates and their various teams for hosting and serving us today. Today would not have been possible without Simon Ponsonsby, Anita Cleverly, Charlie Cleverly, Lauren Harris, Ben Burnett, Ash Sanders, Jon Woods, Geraldine Blackburn, Samantha Hill and Cara McCarthy.
Thank you.

We would love for you to join us for refreshments after the service. Served in the church reception.
