WELCOME

REMEMBERING SYLIVA - Clare Smith

MUM read by Steven.

NANNY by Alex read by Emily, Jess, Eva, Theo and Finnley

Nan, Nanny, Great Nanny, Nanny Silver, Big Nanny.
These names in which to you we have referred, we remember you now from the stories we have heard.

You've always been there and we never thought you'd die but now you have and it's made us all cry. But instead of being glum, let's reflect on the things you have done.

From bringing up three cheeky chappies, pushing the pram and changing nappies to supporting and helping those around, making sure feet are firmly on the ground.

You made Hereford Cathedral sparkle like a gem, doting on Grandchildren Jess and Em. Enjoying the tele - Corrie and Eastenders, dancing at family functions in stockings and suspenders.

Cheering people when they are feeling in a mood, taking your time to fully consume your food. Opening chocolates at Christmas and feeling merry, never refusing that second sherry.

Steven and Paul, who to you meant it all and Eva, Theo and Finnley who you will be sad to leave. But we will carry on your humour, your kindness and your care. We will carry on thinking of you even though you are no longer there.

We love you Nanny and wish you a peaceful sleep. But we know you wouldn't want us to shed tears, you would want us to tell stories of your Ninety Four years and raise a glass to you as a person.

Nanny - Cheers!

Sky Full of Stars - Coldplay

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever
Amen.
