LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading—by Natasha's Grandad, Dave.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans 6:3-9

Let us live a new life.

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised, we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life.

If in union with Christ we have imitated his death, we shall also imitate him in his resurrection. We must realise that our former selves have been crucified with him to destroy this sinful body and to free us from the slavery of sin. When a man dies, of course, he has finished with sin.

But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him anymore.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Poem: In Loving Memory by—Jason's brother, Ryan Fagan.

In Loving Memory

A brother's laugh, a partner's hand,
A dad who taught us how to stand,
A son who brought his parents pride,
In every role, love did abide.

With his fishing rod, he found his peace,
Beside the waters, calm release.
A chef's great skill, in the kitchen's light,
Crafted meals that felt just right.

He blended flavors, just like life,
Through joy and sorrow, peace and strife.
His heart was warm, his spirit bright,
Guiding us with gentle light.

With guitar in hand, he'd play a tune,
Under the stars or beneath the moon.
Melodies flowed, fingers danced,
In those moments, we were entranced.

Gone too soon, but memories stay,
In every meal, in every day.
We'll hear his laughter in the breeze,
And feel his love in memories.

Rest now, dear soul, your work is done,
Your legacy, a shining sun.
In hearts and minds, you'll always be,
Forever loved, eternally.

Prayer of Committal and Prayer over people and Final Blessing.

Music as we exit the Chapel. Song: You Will Never Walk Alone by Gerry and the Pacemakers.
