Streets of Laredo

As I walked out in the streets of Laredo
As I walked out in Laredo one day
I saw a young cowboy, wrapped all in white linen
    Wrapped in white linen, as cold as the clay
Oh, beat the drum slowly and play the fife lowly
    Sing the Death March as you carry me along
Take me to the valley, there lay the sod o'er me
    I'm a young cowboy, I know I've done wrong
    I see by your outfit that you are a cowboy
    These words he did say as I boldly walked by
Come sit down beside me and hear my sad story
    Got shot in the breast and I know I must die
    Go fetch me some water, a cool cup of water
To cool my parched lips, then the poor cowboy said
    Before I returned, his spirit had left him
    Had gone to his Maker, the cowboy was dead
Oh, beat the drum slowly and play the fife lowly
    Sing the Death March as you carry me along
Take me to the valley, there lay the sod o'er me
    I'm a young cowboy, I know I've done wrong

APPRECIATION

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time of sadness.

DONATIONS

Most of Dads belongings have been donated to the Salvation Army. He always said they saved his life when he came out of the Army as they were the only ones to help him when he was down on his luck.

We are not requesting any donations, but ask if in the future you would consider giving any unwanted items to the Sally Army too.

Thank You
