☞Musical Introduction: The Servant Song

Brother let me be your servant
Let me be as Christ to you
Pray that I might have the grace
To let you be my servant too

☞We are pilgrims on a journey
☞We are brothers on the road
☞We are here to help each other
☞Walk the mile and bear the load

I will weep when you are weeping
When you laugh, I'll laugh with you
I will share your joy and sorrow
Till we've seen this journey through

☞When we sing to God in heaven,
☞We shall find such harmony
☞Born of all we've known together
☞Of Christ's love and agony.

Brother let me be your servant
Let me be as Christ to you
Pray that I might have the grace
To let you be my servant too

☞Welcome and Introduction: Rev Phil Hughes

☞Hymn: The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

And this that we call death, it is no more
Than the opening and closing of a door—
And in Your house how many rooms must be
Beyond this one where we rest momentarily.
Dear Lord, I thank You for the faith that frees,
The love that knows it cannot lose its own;
The love that, looking through the shadows, sees
That You and she and we are ever one!

Bible Reading: John 14, 1-7 – Julian Andrews

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”
