

I'll miss us setting the world to rights on Saturdays, just chatting and drinking instant Cappuccinos, watching Gertie snoozing.

I'll miss how much you loved us all and how much you loved getting pictures of Otto.

Watching your garden bloom every year, your kindness and generosity.

Being an amazing sister to my mum and the best auntie in the world to me.

I love you and miss you so much.

WORDS OF WELCOME

All Things Bright And Beautiful
Cecil F. Alexander

All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset, and the morning
That brightens up the sky.

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one.

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

Morning Has Broken

Eleanor Farjeon, Richard Vincent Hill, Traditional

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning
Born of the one light, Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's recreation of the new day.

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the word.
