

A service to celebrate the life of

Marilyn Elsie Davies

15th August 1948 - 11th August 2024

Oakfield Wood | Wednesday 11th September, 2024

Farewell Mari.

You were such a huge part of my life, the person I went to, the person I admired and above all the aunt I loved. I'm sad for those of us left behind to live without your smile and laughter and sense.

I'm glad for you Mari. No more needing to defend your decision to live with cancer your way. You know how proud I was of that. No more battling the medical professionals who felt they knew better. No more pain.

I will miss our calls and emails and will take solace picturing you doing the gardens in the sky planting fields of stars wearing your flares and wafting the scent of Aqua Manda. So many amazing memories Mari I will hold dear to my heart.

Forever in my heart.

Sue

Thoughts on my sister Marilyn:

Queuing at Portsmouth Guildhall for Beatles tickets, and Dad bringing you food and drinks.

All of us on Portsdown Hill having picnics.

Bluebell picking at Horndean.

Both of us on our Christmas trips.

Of you hurting these last years, but that is now passed.

I will always remember all the good things in our lives.

Gwen (big sister)
