First Reading

1 Corinthians 12:31-13:8a, read by Jack Towler

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

Be ambitious for the higher gifts.

And I am going to show you a way that is better than any of them.

If I have all the eloquence of men or of angels, but speak without love, I am simply a gong booming or a cymbal clashing.

If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are, and knowing everything, and if I have faith in all its fullness, to move mountains, but without love, then I am nothing at all.

If I give away all that I possess, piece by piece, and if I even let them take my body to burn it, but am without love, it will do me no good whatever.

*Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous;
love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish; it does not take offence, and is not resentful.
Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth; it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure whatever comes.*

Love does not come to an end.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Read by Donna Cripps

The lord fills the earth with his love.

*They are happy, whose God is the Lord,
The people he has chosen as his own.
The Lord looks on those who revere him.
On those who hope in his love.*

Response: The Lord fills the earth with his love.

*Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
In him do our hearts find joy.
We trust in his holy name.*

Response: The Lord fills the earth with his love.

*May your love be upon us, O Lord.
As we place all of our hope in you.*

Response: The Lord fills the earth with his love.

Gospel

John 15:9-12, read by Deacon Brent

John said to his disciples:

“As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment: Love one another as I have loved you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessing of the Hands

Charlie and Sophie, these are the hands of your best friend, young and strong and full of love for you, that are holding yours on your wedding day, as you promise to love each other today, tomorrow, and forever.

These are the hands that will work alongside yours, as together you build your future.

These are the hands that will passionately love you and cherish you through the years, and with the slightest touch, will comfort you like no other.

These are the hands that will hold you when fear or grief fills your mind.

These are the hands that will countless times wipe the tears from your eyes; tears of sorrow, and tears of joy.

These are the hands that will tenderly hold your children.

These are the hands that will help you to hold your family as one.

These are the hands that will give you strength when you need it.

And lastly, these are the hands that even when wrinkled and aged, will still be reaching for yours, still giving you the same unspoken tenderness with just a touch.

The Nuptial Blessing Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*
