We would ask that you please do not publish photographs or video footage until we have had the opportunity to do so.

A decorative wreath made of various green leaves and branches, rendered in a soft watercolor style. The leaves are in shades of light green, sage, and forest green, with some showing delicate vein patterns. The branches are thin and brownish, creating a natural, organic frame around the central text.

*Thank you for joining us
on our special day.*
