

Phil became involved with Ilford CND and the Labour party. He continued to be a supporter of socialist and communist causes for the rest of his life.

He enjoyed avant garde cinema and remained a movie buff. He had a love of music with an eclectic taste ranging from Shostakovich to Neil Young.

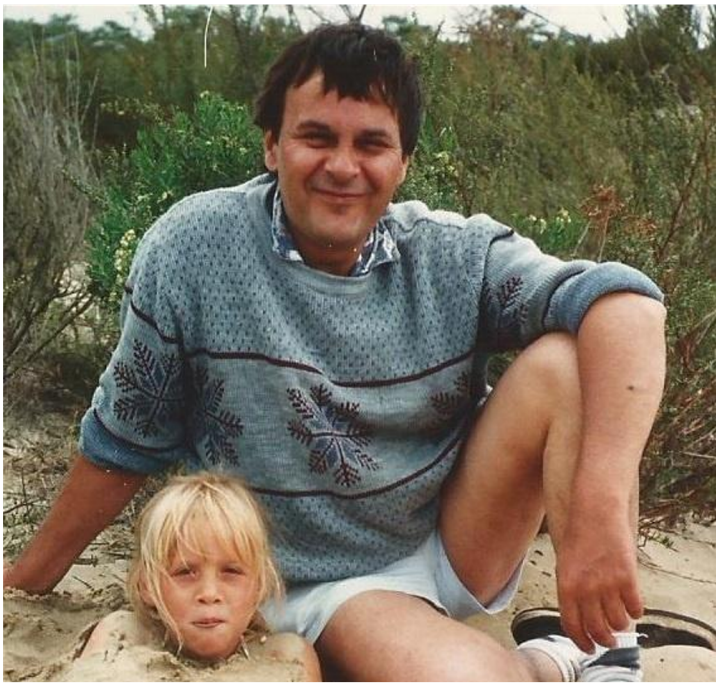

Phil started nursing in 1971 and later became a clinical coding manager

Karen and Phil were happily married for 51 years

Phil was a doting Dad to Sarah and Hannah

Phil loved all things French and as he liked to quote, "You can always feel a good bottle of wine between the legs as my uncle Eduard used to say".
