He Who Would Valiant Be

From The Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan

He who would valiant be
'gainst all disaster,
let him in constancy
follow the Master.
There's no discouragement shall make him once relent his first avowed intent
to be a pilgrim

Who so beset him round with dismal stories, do but themselves confound—his strength the more is.
No foes shall stay his might,
though he with giants fight;
he will make good his right
to be a pilgrim

Since, Lord, Thou dost defend us with Thy Spirit, we know we at the end shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, flee away!
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labor night and day
to be a pilgrim.

Gospel – John 14.1-6, 27

Sermon

Lords Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

I vow to thee my country

Gustav Holst & Sir Cecil Spring Rice

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test
That lays upon the altar, the dearest and the best
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know
We may not count her armies, we may not see her king
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering
And soul by soul, and silently her shining bounds increase
And her ways are ways of gentleness, and all her paths are peace
