THE MARRIAGE

FIRST READING

Corinthians 13:4-8, by Alison Jones

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

SECOND READING

Romans 12:9-12, by Bev Sanders

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.

THIRD READING

From Modern Family, Jay P, by Tim Jones

Why do we choose partners so different from ourselves, it's not fate or chance or cliches like the heart wants what the heart wants, we choose our partners because they represent the unfinished business from our childhood and we choose them because they manifest the qualities we wish we had. In doing so, in choosing such a challenging partner and working to give them what they need, we chart a course for our own growth.
