Hackney Town Hall | London

Hello Friends and Family,

Thank you so much for allowing us to whisk you away from work and school (eekk) on a Friday. Sharing today with all of you makes it very special for us.

As most of you know we've been together for years! The most recent part of our journey has seen a few hiccups. And with what we know and don't know ahead of us we wanted to approach it as Husband and Wife.

Hence our 'shotgun' wedding today!
So our plan is, get this bit done while making it fun with a bit of a sing-along.
We love a bit of karaoke as most of you know. So please join in. Go wild!

Then, once officially married we will continue the celebrations at:
Martello Hall, 137 Mare St, London E8 3RH
(11min walk, follow Callum and Nat)

We plan to quench your thirst on arrival with fizz and ease the rumbles of tummies with some sharing plates to start.
Ahead of speeches and a sit-down lunch from 2pm.

We really hope you enjoy today.

Love you all.
