Reflections on Life

Wilhelm Stekel from The Catcher in the Rye

“ The mark of the immature man is that he wants to die nobly for a cause, while the mark of the mature man is that he wants to live humbly for one. “

Jerusalem

Henry Francis Lyte

And did those feet in ancient time
walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
on England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
among those dark Satanic Mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant Land.

The Grave Said to the Rose - Victor Hugo

The grave said to the rose:
“With the tears that dawn sprinkles upon you
What do you make, flower of love?”

The rose said to the tomb:
“What do you make of those who fall
In your ever-open abyss?”

The rose said, “sombre tomb,
From these tears I make in the shade
A fragrance of amber and of honey.”

The tomb said, “wistful flower,
From each soul that arrives to me
I make an angel in heaven.”

The Road Goes Ever On. J.R.R. Tolkien

The Road goes ever on and on
Out from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
Let others follow it who can!
Let them a journey new begin,
But I at last with weary feet
Will turn towards the lighted inn,
My evening-rest and sleep to meet.
