

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Mary Elizabeth Brown
24th February 1949 – 6th October 2024

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD ON:
Thursday 7th November 2024

St Mary's & St Michael's Church

First Reading – Read by Sam (Mary’s great nephew)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
(4: 13 – 18)

We want you to be quite certain brothers about those who have died; to make sure that you do not grieve about them like the other people who have no hope.

We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him.

We can tell you this from the Lord’s own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord’s coming, will not have any advantage other those who have died.

At the trumpet sound of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command. The Lord himself will come down from Heaven; those who have died in Christ will be first to rise, then those of us still alive will be taken up in the clouds together with them; to meet the Lord in the air.

We shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these: you should comfort one another.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Cremation at City of London Crematorium

(Music chosen were Mary's favourites growing up)

Entrance Song: What's Going On by Marvin Gaye

Morning of my Life by John Holt

'My Aunt' Poem by Megan Stokes - read by Sam

Final Goodbye: Somewhere Over the Rainbow by Eva Cassidy

Mary's family would like to thank you for celebrating Mary's 75 years of life today.

We are holding a wake in Mary's honour at The Crown Pub, Commercial Road this afternoon.

