ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI, NUNDAH,

Amazing Grace

John Newton

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.
Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.
The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.
Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
and mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.
When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun.

Eastertide Alleluia

Light's reddening dawn gleams through the sky;

heaven thunders forth its victory:

alleluia, alleluia!

the glad earth shouts her triumph high and groaning hell makes wild reply:

alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

alleluia, alleluia!

While our Lord Christ, the mighty king,

despoiling death of all its sting

alleluia, alleluia!

and trampling down the powers of night

brings forth his ransomed souls to light.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

alleluia, alleluia!

His tomb of late the threefold guard of watch and stone and seal had barred;

alleluia, alleluia!

but now in power and triumph high

he comes from death to victory.

alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

alleluia, alleluia!

The pains of hell are loosed at last;

the days of mourning now are past;

an angel robed in light has said,

'The Lord has risen from the dead!'

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

alleluia, alleluia!

From every weapon death can yield

your own redeemed for ever shield:

alleluia, alleluia!

O Lord of all, with us abide in this our joyful Eastertide.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

alleluia, alleluia!
