POEM

THE TIDE RECEDES

by M. D. Hughes

read by Ken Reid

The tide recedes,
But leaves behind
Bright seashells on the sand.

The sun goes down,
But gentle warmth
Still lingers on the land.

The music stops,
And yet it echoes on
In sweet refrains;
For every joy that passes,
Something beautiful remains.

IN MEMORY OF BARBARA

read by Simon Gilboy

REFLECTION MUSIC

Nocturne in E flat - Chopin

AFTERGLOW

by Helen Lowrie Marshall

read by Jackie Beedle

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

END OF CEREMONY MUSIC

Dream a little Dream
Softly as in a Morning Sunrise

Please help yourselves to refreshments whilst listening to Mike play.

The family would like to thank you all for joining them today to remember Barbara, and invite you to stay for afternoon tea and share your memories.
