Hymn

The Lords My Sheperd

The Lords My Sheperd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My Soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk thro' deaths dark vale
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou has furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And mu cup overflows.

Goodness mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me:
And in gods house forevermore
My dwelling place shall be.

Reading

All That Matters by George W Dench

Read by – Sue David

All that really matters is the way in which we live;
The way we face our troubles and the happiness we give;
The way we deal with others
whom we contact on life's way;
The way we work, the things we think,
The sort of prayers we pray.

All that really matters is our attitude of mind;
The way we meet life's rough and smooth; the setbacks that we find;
The way we try to right the wrong; the way we check despair;
The way we use our talents and the things for which we care.

All that really matters is the character we build;
The way we shape its glory by the missions we've fulfilled;
The rays we cast through goodness across the ways we've trod;
These are things that matter to ourselves, as well as God.

The Lords Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing Prayer

The Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm your upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand.
