Penny - as remembered by you

"Penny was such a confident child. She went to dance and drama classes and took part in local competitions. She had quite a presence. She was such a lovely girl - very friendly and stylish, popular and clever. She led a very interesting life."

"Penny is always so alive and vibrant in my memory. I hear her in my head talking, arguing, analysing the book we read in book group and talking, analysing, and finding answers to other dilemmas in life beyond book group. She was fiery, feisty and never, ever dull. She wasn't afraid to challenge your ideas just because she was your friend. She was also incredibly giving - I know how much she did for the Grenfell survivors."

"I have so many memories of time spent with Penny as you and the boys were growing up. She was definitely a significant part of our lives - sharing school runs, after-school activities and birthday parties, holidays etc. I always valued her friendship and will miss her."

"I'm so sorry to hear about your mum, she was so wonderful and kind. Her impassioned screams on the side of sports pitches will never be matched, and I will never forget her unrelenting support and her deep knowledge of the rules in every sport."

"Penny was such an intelligent and vivacious woman who could argue her corner very well. I will remember her dancing at her 50th looking a million dollars."

“Penny was a very good friend of mine and I am going to miss her tremendously. Penny was quite unlike anyone else I have ever met. She was a big inspiration to me (I’m only starting to realise just how much now that she’s gone). She was fearless, unusual, fiercely independent, loyal to those she loved (and to hell with everyone else!) and incredibly energetic.”

“Penny was a force of nature – intelligent, talented, and kind. We have happy memories of time spent with her in Rome all those years ago, and of course at the endless regattas!”

“I always had a special connection with your mum. She was a strong woman with strong thoughts and opinions - many of which we shared. She made me laugh, she shared wonderful stories of her life around the world that fascinated me, and our conversations were always ones of depth, meaning, and value, with some jokes and laughter sprinkled in. Penny had a huge personality, a huge heart for those she loved, and a huge voice for what she both believed and stood against. And when she loved and cared, it was abundantly felt as well. Penny will be missed. I was lucky to have her on my side.”

“When I started at the college it was very difficult stepping into the role and to be accepted as part of the team. Penny was enormously supportive, wise and kind during that period, and I have a great deal to thank her for. She had a generosity of spirit which I will miss”

“I came to have a deep respect for Penny. Many of our views would have been dissimilar, but I respected her kindness and feisty determination. Her generosity and compassion were obvious at surprising times and she was incredibly thoughtful. We will remember Penny’s bravery, kindness and determination with fondness.”

“Penny was always very kind to me, and genuinely thoughtful of others. I will remember the time she very sweetly walked me back from hospital after my surgery. It was early morning and she insisted on making me breakfast as I hadn’t eaten for 24 hours. I will miss her.”

“Penny qualified on my ESOL teacher training course (years ago of course) and was a really lively and challenging member of the group. She had strong ideas that she bounced off us all, forcing us to think, argue and defend/justify our positions, rather than just be accepting of a given curriculum. She was a very knowledgeable person in general and never lost that motivation to do good by the students and not to sell them short just for convenience - she will be much missed by all.”

"It felt good to have Penny in your corner. It felt safe. She set a wonderful example of what fierce loyalty towards family, close friends, and strangers in need should look like. It’s a quality I strive to uphold and a value I hope can be passed onto my kids."
