Hymn - Jerusalem

And did those feet in ancient time walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
on England's pleasant pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
among these dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold:
Bring me my arrows of desire:
Bring me my spear: O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire.

I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

Poem - Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
and each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.
