Poem - Live for Today

We should live each day for the moments,
For the moment is all that we've got
We should never look backwards or forward -
Stop pinning for that which is not.

The happiest people among us
Are those who have faith in today -
Tomorrow should never concern us
And Yesterday's so far away...

So, live for the day and be happy,
Take pleasure in all that you do,
And the more you can live for each moment,
The more joy...each day will bring you
