Celebrant - Julie Tyler

POEM

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.

She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say.

Will suddenly re-capture a time, an hour a day,

That brings her back so clearly as though she were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And Lizzie will live forever locked safely in your heart.

POEM - JIGSAW

*Wouldn't stay without you, couldn't bear to be apart,
We shared so much together, we shared a beating heart.
Partner, husband, best friend, the true light of my life,
So fortunate to find you, and to have you for my wife.*

*We were a two piece jigsaw, a really perfect fit,
Whatever gave us trouble, we'd both face up to it.
A stronger bond you'd never find, joined from head to toe,
Couldn't be without you, couldn't bear to see you go.*

*So our loved ones now will miss us, the tears will flow no doubt,
But I hope it gives them comfort, to know that now I'm not without.*

*I'm now there with my soulmate, the one I did adore,
Two pieces back together, again a whole jigsaw.*
