

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Eulogy and Family Memories

Poem - My Grandad Jimmy (written and read by Chloe)

I can hear you speaking now, and I know just what you would say,
Don't cry over me or get upset, don't waste your time, ok?

Remember the good times and always smile because I'm never far away,
Then pull your socks up, get a grip, and get on with your day.

Don't think about what could have been because I chose my time to go,
Jeannie came and got me, and this time I didn't say no.

She said mum, dad, our brothers and sisters in heaven
Have missed your silly jokes,
So I took her hand and off we went, to have a pint and a smoke.

It doesn't make things easier knowing what you would say,
Because the love and care I have for you is with me everyday.

This is not a farewell Grandad,
We will reunite and be together,
When you greet me at the pearly gates, dressed as pristine as ever.

I know you have always been so proud of me,
And will watch me from above,
You will always be my running bear and me, your little white dove.

Song

Running Bear
By Johnny Preston

Poem

To our Dad

Another day goes by without you,
Another day to reminisce.
About all the good times we shared together
And everything we miss.

The pub feels empty without you,
We look at your photos in a frame,
We still feel you around us both,
But nothing feels the same.

If we could see you for a minute,
We know what we would do,
We would freeze that moment in a heartbeat,
So we could stay with you.

I know someday we'll be together,
In a place not far away.
And our hearts will not be broken, like they are today.

Time for Reflection

Song

Maggie May

By Rod Stewart

~Accompanied by visual presentation of memories~

