Poem-In Love with Nature by Suryendu Chaudhury

Have you listened to the nightingale's song and with a pigeon chatted along?
The silver glow of the night sky shall teach you to look within mind's eye and the sun's bright valour shall do away with the pallor in the sweet dance of butterflies you shall discover what delight lies a glow worm's light can't be matched with any other sight the blossoming flowers have the rejuvenating powers the smell of vegetables and fruits shall remind us of our roots in the rains mesmerising symphony you shall do away with any agony so if you want to know human nature look deep into the wonders of nature!

Farewell to Peter

Poem-I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud by William Wordsworth

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed—and gazed—but little thought What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.
