The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

READING: WHEN ROBINS COME TO GREET YOU
Read By Nellie The Celebrant

When robins come to greet you, when feathers fall at your side, take these as my messages, I am your Angel guide.

When the rain touches your skin, when droplets fall of snow, just know that I'm right there with you, I didn't want to go.

When rainbows form above you, when the sun kisses your face, look for me in new ways, I am not the empty space.

When my song comes on the radio, when my scent grazes your nose, when blossom springs from trees, when new flowers start to grow.

I'll be the wind as it whispers, my message in your ear, so many little signs I'll send you, so that you can feel me near.

So look for me in new ways, the moon, the twinkling stars, and just know that although you cannot see me, I'm never really far.
