WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM
Remember Me

By Anthony Dowson, read by Holly and Grace

Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.
I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.
Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.
I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.

POEM

Family Strength

By author unknown, read by Carol Bode

A flower without a petal
A tree that's dropped a leaf
We have lost you from our midst
But stand united in our grief.

Like a poet who can't find the words
A singer without a song
We'll call up happy memories
And keep each other strong.

Our days will seem much darker
Clouds shadowing the sun
But we'll walk forth as a family
And face the world as one.
